CROSS CITY

The City of Corinth, Mississippi was founded in 1854 as Cross City. Its close proximity to the Tennessee River and railroads made it of great strategic value during the Civil War. The Battle of Corinth was fought here October 3 & 4, 1862.

In 1997, Cross City Grille was established in the heart of downtown Corinth, across from the historic Railroad Depot. With its daily lunch specials, often with Cajun and Creole influences; and its Saturday night Prime Rib, Cross City Grille is becoming as much a part of Corinth as its Civil War Battlefields and beautiful Southern homes.

So, enjoy your visit and come again.
