Students enrolled in the CA/FSM, PA/FSM and Restaurant Management Degree Programs welcome you to Bistro 61. "61" is a high-end bistro concept designed to fully showcase the talents of FSM4061 students to the Johnson & Wales Community.

It is our hope, as a specially invited guest, you will contribute to the enrichment of their management abilities. To that end, we ask that you candidly and professionally critique our performance on the customer comment card that will be presented by your server at the end of your dining experience.

Thank you for assisting in the development of our "61" management team and their desire to professionally represent the Center for Food and Beverage Management, the Hospitality College, and Johnson & Wales University, as they enter food service industry.
