Courtesy is the "CENTRAL" idea

ONE by one, wartime travel shortcomings are on the way out. But the men and women of New York Central will never forget the cheerfulness and helpfulness passengers showed in those trying days.

Your courtesy proved catching. Railroaders responded by redoubling their efforts to be personally helpful. From end to end of New York Central, they've formed themselves into Public Relations Groups. And there you'll find executives, engineers, signalmen, mechanics, people from all the 128 railroad crafts . . . pooling their ideas and experience to find better ways of earning your goodwill.

Nearly 30,000 have already enrolled, and more are joining daily. For they know their friendly helpfulness can mean as much to your travel enjoyment as the modern comfort of today's Great Steel Fleet . . . or the still greater luxury being built into the Trains of Tomorrow.

"COMPANY MANNERS"

MOST BECOMING thing to wear is a smile. Little words like "thank you" do a big job. You'll find such ideas from the new employee booklet, "Company Manners," in action everywhere you travel on New York Central.
