There's always room for improvement and some survey takers said they want the library to:

- Stay open 24/7

While extending hours of operation is currently not an option, there are new places on campus for students to meet or study:

Starbucks at Harborside
 Open 24 Hours a Day Sun-Thu

John J. Bowen Center for Science & Innovation
 Open 6:30AM to Midnight Mon-Thu

- Provide a quieter environment

Some changes were made to meet this challenge.

Downcity Library – Seating rearranged to encourage smaller groups
Harborside Library – Quiet Study Area added

In addition, library staff are asking students to take responsibility for setting the tone for a productive study environment. ♦
