Bar - Grill Menus

M E N U

All our waiters and waitresses aren't hiding in the back room. We just don't have any. We feel that too often when you're ready to order your meal – or when your order is ready – your waiter or waitress isn't. So when you're ready, step right up to the counter and give your order to Frank or Matt or John or Jay or Alan or whoever's there. We'll get your drinks for you so you can relax while we prepare your meal. When it's ready, we'll call your name or number and you can pick up your food while it's fresh and hot. We hope everything is just right and if it isn't let us know. Even we can make an occasional mistnak mistreak mestake mistake.
