

An Inn of Colonial Charm

Hotel Northampton & Wiggins Old Tavern

Northampton, Massachusetts

THIS sign now hangs in the main entrance to Wiggins Old Tavern, but for more than 100 years it hung in front of an historic tavern in New Hampshire which was operated by a relative of Lewis N. Wiggins who is the landlord of Wiggins Tavern and Hotel Northampton.

IN designing Wiggins Old Tavern which is annexed to Hotel Northampton, it was with the express purpose of offering greater entertainment to my guests. It has required careful study and research to construct faithfully an Early American Tavern, Ordinary or Inn. Every detail has been studied; effort and expense have not been spared to restore the atmosphere and appearance of an old tavern as it was in the days of our ancestors. The building is over 100 years old and was used as an Inn until about thirty years ago. There are six diningrooms; on the ground floor is the Ordinary, the Tap Room and the Kitchen, completely furnished with genuine Early American pieces that I have collected and restored for daily use. On the floor above is the Oak Room, beautifully paneled with oak and pine, the College Room and Yankee Room with many interesting antiques.

The hand hewn beams in the ceiling of the Ordinary were left just as I found them after removing many layers of boards and plaster. The walls in the Ordinary and Tap Room are covered with old paneling, boards and doors which were taken from old houses. The Kitchen ceiling timbers were taken from a very old house in Northampton. In these rooms is a very extensive assortment of furnishings such as were used in the daily domestic life of our ancestors. The fireplaces are reproductions of early ones and are built with stone and handmade brick taken from old fireplaces near Northampton.

In the Tavern Court Yard is the Old Country Store built, furnished and stocked as a store might have been before 1850. In the attic is the Loom Room filled with rare spinning wheels and old looms working again as they were in early days. In the basement is a large collection of churns, cheese presses, early utensils, etc. Also in the Court Yard is the Pioneer Log Cabin, completely furnished. Beyond the Log Cabin is the Old Wagon and Tool Shed filled with early tools, farming implements, and old vehicles.
