WELCOME TO TEMPLIN'S

Templin's Resort Hotel is nestled among majestic mountains and complimented by a breathtaking panoramic view of the Spokane River. Frederick Post, the town's founder, came to the area in 1871 and negotiated with the Coeur d'Alene Indians to buy over 298 acres. The Indians' village, Q'emiln, which means "throat of the river", was located here. Post later built a flour mill, the current site of the Lousiana Pacific Corporation lumber mill, which you passed on your way to the resort. The Spokane River quietly weaves the story of the past with the present as it flows from Lake Coeur d'Alene over the Post Falls Dam on its westward journey to the Pacific Ocean. Artwork of historic scenes of Post Falls' early days are displayed on the walls of the resort.

Affectionately known as Mr. and Mrs. T, Bob and Mary Templin's hospitality spans decades. Mr. Templin built his first restaurant in 1946 in Ritzville, Washington. During the following years he built a chain of restaurants and is considered an expert in the hospitality industry. Mrs. Templin, whose Mexican cuisine expertise is unsurpassed, has successfully operated Mrs. T's Boutique for many years. Located in the resort lobby, the boutique is filled with specialty, hand selected gifts of unique interest.

Admired for their generosity, warm spirit and graciousness, the Templin's have for 50 years welcomed guests as family. Their hospitality mission is to reach or exceed the expectation of guests through distinctive service and to foster an environment of teamwork, performance and opportunity among fellow associates. Their commitment includes making a meaningful contribution to the community they serve.
