Best Time At the Movies

The Bethesda Theatre, designed by renowned theatre architect John Eberson, was constructed in 1937-1938. The "BORO" Theatre opened for business on May 19, 1938. The theatre was renamed "BETHESDA" in September of 1939 in order to be more closely identified with the community. It was designated as a historic landmark in 1986. Thanks to your patronage, the BETHESDA Theatre remains alive and in service to this community since 1938.

Thanks for coming!
