'APPARTEMENT DE L'EMPEREUR is the most recent and significant addition to the history of the Napoleon House. The upstairs meeting and reception room is quite unlike any other, anywhere.

Faithfully restored to the elegance of the Empire period, L'AP-PARTEMENT reveals its character in the care which has been given to every detail: the wide-planked flooring, the original hand-milled cypress woodwork, the chandeliers and medallions, the intricately carved crest of the Girod family which crowns the mantel.

For all its historic significance, L'APPARTEMENT has an unpretentiously comfortable ambience which is complemented by the friendly service so characteristic of today's Napoleon House. This happy contrast between setting and mood makes any event, from an awards banquet to a wedding reception, incomparably richer and more enjoyable.

L'APPARTEMENT DE L'EMPEREUR is now available for private functions. Its 2,300 square foot area is available for business meetings and more than adequate to accommodate either seated dining or more informal stand-up occasions. The room's storied past lends a memorable significance to present-day celebrations of all kinds.

For more information about the facilities and catering arrangements of L'APPARTEMENT DE L'EMPEREUR, call the Napoleon House, (504) 525-2431.

Experience Mediterranean and Southern French Cuisine with a South Louisiana Flair! (Serving Tuesday - Saturday, 6PM to 10:30PM) In The ELBA ROOM The Napoleon House Bar and Cafe', located at the corner of Rue St. Louis and Rue Chartres in the Vieux Carre' of New Orleans, occupies the first floor of the Napoleon House . The house has been designated an historic building by the United States Department of the Interior construction was begun in 1797 as a private home for the mayor of the city, Nicholas Girod. The name is derived from a plot (in which the pirate, Jean Lafitte, participated) to rescue Napoleon from exile on the Island of St. Helena • The House was being enlarged and was offered to the emperor in 1821 as his home in the new world • However, Napoleon died before the plan could be fulfilled . Owned by the same family for over eighty years, the bar and cafe' has evolved into an internationally famous New Orleans institution • Though internationally known it has retained its local French Quarter flavor and clientele • In keeping with its unique nature, the background music is classical, played at the patron's request •
