Scotch List

Balvenie

Balvenie 10 Year Old $10

Nose: Orange-honey perfume. Musky, faint hint of peat.

Palate: Honeyed sweetness drying to lightly spicy notes. Very lively. Just a hint of sherry.

Finish: A tingly, almost aggressive, surge of flavours, with lingering, syrupy honey.

Balvenie 15 Year Old $13

Nose: Cedary. Vanilla. Custard. Honey.

Palate: Toffee. Sweetish. Cedary. Scenty

Finish: Coconut. Indian spices. Very long indeed.

Glenfiddich 12 Year Old $9

Nose: Light and malty/mealy. Water opens up the nutty crackerbread maltiness alongside some dry grass and dried apple.

Palate: Soft with vanilla, malt, a light nuttiness and a soft mid-palate.

Finish: Soft and lightly fruity with a hint of chocolate.

Glengoyne 10 Year Old $8

Nose: Sweet, with toffee and popcorn aromas.

Slightly nutty, with fresh green apples coming through

Palate: Clean. Green apples and grass with a hint of sweet liquorice

Finish: Sweet and malty

Lagavulin 16 Year Old $15

Nose: Massive peat. Ultra-intense iodine carries a shade more spice than of old. The fruity-sherry notes are clean, vanilla is much deeper. Beautifully layered.

Palate: Peat so thick you could stand a spoon in it. Chewy iodine bolstered by sherry and big oak.

Finish: A little spice lightens the grip of the peat and vanilla. Dries off with malt, dried dates... and iodine.

Glenlivet

Glenlivet 12 Year Old

$9

Nose: Floral and malty. Ivy. Sweet cereals. Fresh paint. Cedar. Polished floors. A touch of marzipan. Apples in puff pastry. Buttery.

Palate: Fresh and minty. Quite chewy. Spices emerge but not excessively so. A splash of water brings out flavours.

Finish: Satisfying, warm and spicy.

Glenlivet 15 Year Old, French Oak

$12

Nose: Incense. Lightly oily (wood oil), russet apples and buttery notes. Some pineapple and then floral notes.

Palate: Medium bodied. Light cinnamon spiciness, then apple and a sparkling feel.

Finish: Fades, leaving a slightly bitter note.

Glenlivet 18 Year Old

Nose: Elements beautifully combined. Depth of flowery aromas. Very light touch of peatiness. Some sweetness and a hint of sherryish oak.

Palate: Flowery and sweet at first, then developing peach-stone nuttiness.

Finish: Dry appetizing. Very long, with interplay of sweet and bitter flavours.

Glenlivet Archive, 21 Years

$24

Nose: Very fresh in both its heathery peatiness and its juicy, sweet, sherry. Appetising.

Palate: Sweet, flowery, honey-syrup, butter, toast and butter.

Finish: Cinnamon. Lightly spicy dryness.

Well-done toast. Gently sustaining.

Glenmorangie 10 Year Old

$11

Nose: Walnuts. Vanilla. Green herbs. Some flowery sweetness.

Palate: Flaky oakiness with a complex toastiness to the barley suggesting the lightest hint of smoke.

Finish: Amazingly long, drying from the initial sweetness but with flaked almonds amid the oakier notes.

Glenrothes

Glenrothes Select Reserve $10

Nose: Spice, spirit and citrus. Fruitiness too, with a combination of pale sultanas and sharp woodland berries.

Palate: Slightly spirity, spicy and with mixed peel character.

Finish: Dry cereal, nutty, young.

Glenrothes Vintage 1991 $14

Nose: Soft, fruity, ripe black plums and liquorice.

Palate: Soft citrus, orange zest and sherry oak.

Finish: Medium length, spicy.

Glenrothes Vintage 1987 $16

Nose: Charming acacia honey and demerara sugar within a floral theme of pansies and violets.

Palate: Initially enclosed and oaky. Pans out to allow a richer, toffee-cream and intensely malty middle.

Finish: Medium length, simple mixture of oak and barley.

Glenrothes Vintage 1984 $18

Nose: Full, fruity, ripe melon, vanilla oak.

Palate: Full, spicy, oak and vanilla.

Finish: Medium length and sweetness.

Glenrothes Vintage 1972 $30

Nose: Extraordinary malt concentrate tempered with intense vanilla. Brooding and fabulously balanced.

Palate: A curious but enormously delicious amalgam of rich barley, toffee and liquorice.

Extremely sweet throughout.

Finish: Long, melt-in-the-mouth, with a hint of honeycomb and countering spice.

Mackillop's Choice

Mackillop's Choice Linlithgow

Distilled 1975 $22

Nose: Intense, grassy/ sappy with greengage, hazelnut and sesame oil/olive oil.

Palate: Full, spicy, slightly smoky palate. It's a whisky you feel as much as taste or nose.

Finish: Clover and nut.

Mackillop's Choice Banff

Distilled 1966 $30

Nose: Faint, fragrant, burnt grass.

Palate: Clean, distinctly sweet, peachy, malty.

Rather neutral in the middle. Becoming smoky and peaty.

Finish: Sweetness and dryness, becoming astringently peaty. Long, warming.

Tomintoul 16 Year Old $12

Nose: Nutty (hazelnut) with dry bracken/heather and cereal. Water brings out grassiness, a touch of syrup and green fern.
Palate: Soft to start. Rounded with butterscotch and nutmeg. Light, dry.
Finish: Sweet. Expressive. Orange flower water

Johnnie Walker

Johnnie Walker Red Label $6

Nose: Very aromatic, indeed. Sexily earthy.
Peaty, junipery, fruity.
Palate: Robust malt and grain. Very lively.
Scenty spiciness. Gingery. Comes on hot and strong.
Finish: Island smokiness and saltiness emerging; lingering and insistent.

Johnnie Walker Black Label $9

Nose: Rich. Maple syrup, spices and mustard.
Palate: Cannabis. Big interplay of smoky dryness, spicy heat and sweetly malty, creamy vanilla.
Finish: Rounded with raisiny sherry. At length, mellow.

Johnnie Walker Green Label $12

Nose: Fragrant, inspired. Mango and guava.
Beeswax. Toffee. Peppercorn. A whiff of sea-breeze.
Palate: Smooth, mellow. Honeyish. Then sailing off with dainty sea flavours. Cinnamon and coffee fudge. Toasted almond.
Finish: Spicy, long, warming. Walnut stain. An echo of peat smoke.

Johnnie Walker Gold Label $16

Nose: Un-peeled apricot. Hint of creamy peppermint.
Palate: Silky. Delicate. Scottish tablet. Kendal mint cake. Very subtle fruitness.
Finish: More delicate minty dryness

Johnnie Walker Blue Label $35

Nose: Perfumy. Lime skins. Juniper. Slightly sweet spiciness. Tobacco and juicy oak.
Palate: Beautifully rounded. Voluptuous. Ginger cake. Marzipan. Nuts. Pears in chocolate.
Finish: Flowery dryness. roses. Long, lingering.

Featured Wineries & Wine Makers

ITALY

Bartenura

Named for a 15th century philosopher, Bartenura wines are currently one of the hottest wines from Italy. The winery located in the Piedmont region of Italy, these premium Italian wines will offer you a unique insight into the marvelous wine traditions of Italy. The vineyard planted on Pavia's sun-drenched landscape tends to yield rich, ripe grapes that produce aromatic, fruity wines. With a broad range of outstanding varietals, Bartenura is a firm presence on the Italian wine market.

Pinot Grigio 9 34

Castelboglione

2005

Light, dry and crisp, with tangy lemon-grapefruit aromas and flavors.

Chianti 10 37

Tuscany

2004

Oak aged, fruity bouquet of cherries and fresh red fruit, entwined with spicy, peppery notes. This wine is lively and fresh on the palate, with soft, rounded tannins followed by a long finish.

Moscato D'Asti 7 24

Castelboglione

2005

Naturally rich in perfumes, the production of this wine is geared towards preserving these aromas in the finished wine. Fermentation takes place at a low temperature in order to give this wine fresh, peachy perfumes and a light, grapey fruit.

Prosecco 7 25

Castelboglione

2005

This sparkling white wine has apple and vanilla aromas. Fresh apple, pear, and cinnamon flavors. Easygoing with a slight rich and creamy finish.

AUSTRALIA

Teal Lake

When wine production began in Australia during the early 1800's the wines produced were rich and sweet, typical of a warm climate, and for the most part, just used locally. However, using modern technology, Australia began to produce popular table wines that rivaled the wines in the west. Currently Australia is the third largest exporter of wine to the U.S., behind only France and Italy.

Shiraz 9 36

South Eastern Australia
2005

Vibrant red in colour with very purple hues. This premium Australian Shiraz shows an intense spicy, fragrant bouquet together with stylish elegant berry fruit flavours on the palate.

Petit Verdot Cabernet 7 28

South Eastern Australia
2003

55% Petit Verdot, 45% Cabernet. Deep purple hues with lifted perfumed spices and mint on the nose. The palate displays rich plum fruit flavours combined with spice and mint and balanced with a subtle hint of French oak to finish with a firm tannin grip.

Altoona Hills

Located in central Victoria, not far from Nagambie and Seymour, Altoona Hills is an extremely approachable selection of Australian wines that appeal to beginner wine drinkers, as well as advanced palates.

Chardonnay 6 24

South Eastern Australia
2004

Rich fruit flavors, shows considerable complexity. The bouquet displays of melon and peaches while providing a creamy texture that lingers at the finish.

Merlot 6 24

South Eastern Australia
2002

Rich and complex with distinct floral and ripe fruit aromas.

ISRAEL

Carmel

Baron Edmond de Rothschild planted the first vineyards near Rishon le Zion, south east of Jaffa/Tel-Aviv. In 1882, French rootstock was brought in, and the Baron sent his own specialists to advise the pioneers and to start the building of large wine cellars in Rishon le Zion. Exporting to over 40 countries, Carmel products are now to be found in leading wine stores and retail chains around the globe.

Emerald Riesling & Chenin Blanc 11 37
Shomron

Vineyard Selected - 2004

A perfumed confectionary bouquet and spicy tropical flavors. A lychee spin with eddies of grapefruit.

Merlot 10 38
Galilee

Private Collection - 2005

Full bodied with the dark spicy flavors of Cabernet, mixed with the softer tastes of summer fruit, typical of the Merlot variety.

CALIFORNIA

Weinstock Cellars

Weinstock Cellars winery, located in Santa Maria in central California, was started by Robert Weinstock in 1984. But since 1993 it has been owned by the Royal Wine Corporation. Wines of Distinction

California

Hagafen Cellars

Hagafen Cellars is located in the Napa Valley, in the heart of California's premier wine grape region. Owned and operated by Irit and Ernie Weir, the winery was founded in 1979. The first vintage released commercially was harvested in 1980. Hagafen Cellars currently produces 8,000 cases of premium table wines each year.

Pinot Noir 72

Napa Valley
2005

This medium-bodied wine has a soft velvet structure and finishes with a warm roasted coffee note.

Double Gold, Taster's Guild Journal

Cabernet Sauvignon 105

Napa Valley
2002

A rich, almost chocolate-like aroma and bouquet compliment the wild blackberry fruitiness laced with a hint of mint. The addition of 10% Cabernet Franc enhances the fruitiness with a touch of black cherry as well as adding a robust and silky mid-palate. Aged for 19 months in small oak cooperage

Syrah 78

Napa Valley
2001

Aromas of blueberry, chocolate cherry, leather, and tobacco. This inky, dark red wine fills the mouth with firm, meaty tannins, complementing a rich mix of cherry, black cherry, chocolate, and leather.

Brut Cuvee Late Disgorge 79

Napa Valley
2002

78% Pinot Noir from California Soleil and 22% Chardonnay from Two Rivers. It presents aromas of lemon, grapefruit, strawberry, and white chocolate with hints of melon, tea, and toast. On the palate is an even more complex combination of flavors, including peach, tropical pineapple, grapefruit and pink grapefruit, berry, chocolate, tea, and bread. The finish is long and satisfying, a classic example of excellent New World Sparkling Wine.

Wines of Distinction

CALIFORNIA

Baron Herzog

93- Wine Enthusiast Rating

Cabernet Sauvignon 78

Special Reserve

Alexander Valley

2003

Wonderful complexity, finesse and depth of flavor, with layers of earthy currant, plum, wild berry, spice and cedar. Long elegant aftertaste. Full-bodied, soft tannins and deep, rich color.

Chardonnay 72

Special Reserve

Russian River Valley

2004

Quite rich and complex, drawing on pear, citrus, hazelnut, and mineral flavors, all framed in a creamy-smooth texture with plenty of toasty oak. Good acidity carries it along nicely for a clean, lingering finish.

Chenin Blanc 6 24

Clarksburg

2004

This is a distinctive Chenin Blanc that reflects the quality of Clarksburg appellation. Aromas of white peach and ripe apple are framed by a nice bright acid balance.

Wines of Distinction

France

Bordeaux Region

Bordeaux is the largest wine region in the world and has an excellent environment for growing vines. The ecological foundation of the region is limestone, meaning that the soil is full of calcium, and the natural paths of the Garonne and the Dordogne irrigate the land. Combined with the oceanic climate, giving humidity to the atmosphere, this creates a desirable environment for grapes to flourish.

Château La Clare 89

Médoc

2003

Intense dark cherry aroma, with opulent berry, spice and oak flavors.

Château Rollan de By 150

Médoc

2001

Exhibits oak, tannin, volume, and density along with medium to full body, excellent ripeness, and a spicy, long finish. Very attractive aromas of crushed berries, chocolate and light vanilla compliment the well integrated tannins, and long caressing finish.

Château Valandraud 350

Saint Émilion

2002

Roasted aromas of blackberry, black raspberry, cherry, lead pencil and espresso, plus an exotic suggestion of peach. Thick and impressively concentrated, with lovely clarity of berry and cherry flavors thanks to firm acidity.

New Zealand

Goose Bay

Started making kosher wines in 2005, the vineyards are in The Coastal Ridge region located on the hills facing the Tasman Bay. They are located on heavy soils and provide depth and concentration.

Pinot Noir 59

East Coast

2005

The long, cool growing season and clay loam soils have contributed incredible flavors of black cherry strawberry to this wine.

Sauvignon Blanc 12 40

Marlborough

2005

The long, cool growing season and clay loam soils have contributed incredible citrus fruit flavors, and a crisp texture to this wine.
