COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

GEORGE SHINN

George Shinn is a successful educator, business executive, author and lecturer.

Mr. Shinn's formal education was received at a small business school in his home state of North Carolina; he has also received five honorary doctorate degrees. He was the youngest person ever to win the prestigious Horatio Alger Award and the second North Carolinian to win this honor.

Mr. Shinn owns the Rutledge College chain of proprietary schools and other corporations in such diverse areas as automobile dealerships, real estate, construction, printing, publishing and leadership seminars. He is widely known for his efforts to bring professional sports to the Carolinas.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

MICHAEL R. DANIEL

Michael R. Daniel, Lieutenant Governor of South Carolina, was elected to the House of Representatives in 1972 and served for ten years. In 1982 he was elected South Carolina's 81st Lieutenant Governor.

Lieutenant Governor Daniel has focused much of his time promoting the State's economic development and improving its educational system. Under his leadership, private enterprise and government have joined hands to develop small business and technology centers across the state of South Carolina.

MICHAEL J. GRISANTI

Michael J. Grisanti, President of Grisanti, Inc., recently merged with Imasco USA, Inc., based in Rocky Mount, North Carolina.

Mr. Grisanti is currently Vice-President of the National Restaurant Association (NRA) and in 1981, the co-recipient of the prestigious Ivy Award, an award sponsored by Restaurants and Institutions magazine for achieving excellence in the industry.

The Governor of Kentucky appointed Mr. Grisanti to the Cultural Complex Task Force and he was elected a delegate to the 1980 White House Conference on Small Business. He has performed an active role in numerous civic organizations in Louisville, Kentucky, and is presently a Johnson & Wales College Advisory Council member.

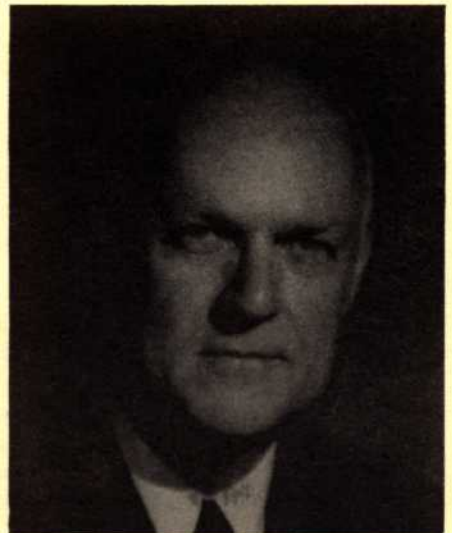

CHARLES E. PALMER

Dr. Charles E. Palmer is presently Chairman of the Board and Treasurer, Strayer College, Inc., a Maryland corporation, and Corporate Chief Executive Officer of Strayer College, Washington, D.C., a regionally and nationally accredited four-year college.

Dr. Palmer maintains other business affiliations: CPA, State of South Carolina, consultant in Independent College organization and operations, consultant in Community/Junior College Finance, Administration, and Educational Programs.

Dr. Palmer is extensively committed to a variety of educational and civic organizations. He is the co-author of 12 publications and author of Accounting for the Modern Office.
