Honorary Degree Recipient

RICHARD M. KELLEHER

*Doctor of Business Administration
in Hospitality Management*

Richard M. Kelleher serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of Doubletree Hotels Corporation, one of the largest hotel management companies in the country. The corporation owns the Doubletree brand and operates Doubletree Hotels, Doubletree Guest Suites and Club Hotels by Doubletree, as well as other properties under independent or internationally franchised flags.

The former President and CEO of Guest Quarters Suite Hotels, Mr. Kelleher was a co-founder of Boston-based Beacon Hotel Corporation in 1983. Beacon acquired the Guest Quarters brand in 1986 and, under Mr. Kelleher's guidance, the company expanded to 40 properties by 1993. In December of 1993, Guest Quarters Hotel Partnership merged with Doubletree Hotels.

Mr. Kelleher has spent his entire career in the hospitality industry. Prior to Beacon, he served as Director of Development Planning for Holiday Inns. He also managed the Boston hospitality consulting practice of Lavenhol and Horwath and was Project Director for the Chicago office of Pannell Kerr Forster.

Honorary Degree Recipient

PETER S. LYNCH

Doctor of Business Administration

Peter S. Lynch is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Fidelity Group of Funds. From May 1977 to May 1990, he was the portfolio manager of Fidelity's renowned Magellan Fund.

At the time of his retirement in 1990, this fund had increased in size from $20 million to $14 billion with over one million shareholders. In the last five years, when Magellan was the largest fund in the world, it out-performed 99% of all stock funds.

Mr. Lynch has authored a number of bestsellers. In his book, One Up On Wall Street, he explains how years of caddying on the golf course and listening to conversations about the stock market provided him with a valuable education. When he won a partial scholarship for caddies to attend Boston College, he began to invest successfully in the stock market, and was able to partially finance his graduate studies through his earnings.

A 1965 graduate of Boston College, Mr. Lynch earned an M.B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business Administration. He has served as trustee of the American Ireland Fund and the John F. Kennedy Library Foundation. He has been on the Board of Trustees of Massachusetts General Hospital, and on the Trust Fund Board of the Library of Congress. His philanthropy extends to starting a charitable foundation specifically for religious, health care and educational organizations.

Mr. Lynch has been recognized with numerous civic and professional awards, including the Family Award by the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. In 1991, Fortune Magazine named him to its national Business Hall of Fame.

Mr. Lynch resides in a Boston suburb with his wife, Carolyn, and three daughters.

Honorary Degree Recipient

MADELEINE A. PAULSON

*Doctor of Business Administration
in Equine Management*

An accomplished breeder and owner of thoroughbred and sports race horses, Madeleine A. Paulson is well known throughout the worldwide equestrian industry. With her husband, Allen, she helped propel their superstar horse, Cigar, into the status of goodwill ambassador for the entire sport of thoroughbred racing.

Born in Iraq and raised in Iraq, England and France, Mrs. Paulson's early education included boarding schools in England and France. Later, she attended Notre Dame des Oiseaux in Paris. Prior to becoming involved in the equine industry, she owned and operated a commercial flight operation.

An animal lover and avid sportswoman all her life, Mrs. Paulson developed a passion for thoroughbred racing after marrying Allen, himself the owner of a top racing and breeding operation. One of the first horses she raced herself was the 1992 Breeders' Cup Turf Champion, Fraise. Since then, her runners have included Grade 1 winners Duda and Dahlia's Dreamer.

The Paulsons traveled tirelessly during Cigar's historic 1995-96 campaign, meeting fans and signing autographs. During that time, they donated all residual profits from products depicting Cigar to various charities.

Mrs. Paulson organized the 1994 and 1995 Brookside Charity Horse Show to benefit Canine Companions for Independence, the Pegasus Foundation, Ronald McDonald House and other charities. She is a board member of the Scripps Foundation for Medicine and Science, and founded the Canine Angels Golf Tournament, which helps supply companion dogs to disabled people.

The Paulsons live in Rancho Santa Fe, California with their daughter, Dominique, who also is an accomplished equestrienne.

Honorary Degree Recipient

KURT E. RITTER

*Doctor of Business Administration
in Hospitality Management*

Kurt E. Ritter is President and Chief Executive Officer of Radisson SAS Hotels Worldwide which is home-based in Brussels, Belgium. Mr. Ritter, who has worked for SAS for more than 20 years, was instrumental in the formation of the strategic international marketing agreement with American-based Radisson Hospitality Worldwide in 1994.

Born in Switzerland, Mr. Ritter began learning about the hospitality industry and the importance of customer service at a young age in his parents' hotel. Upon completion of his studies at Switzerland's Ecole Hôtelière in Lausanne in 1970, he began his career as Assistant Manager of the Bellevue Palace in Bern.

Through the early 1970s, Mr. Ritter held several positions at Ramada properties in Belgium, France and Sweden. In 1976, SAS International Hotels appointed him general manager of its Lulea Hotel in northern Sweden. Later, he became general manager of the SAS Kuwait Hotel and, in 1983, Vice President/Middle East.

In 1984, Mr. Ritter transferred to Singapore as Vice President Middle East & Far East. He relocated to Oslo, Norway, in 1987, as Executive Vice President/Operations. In 1989 he was named President and CEO and relocated the corporate headquarters to Brussels to better position the company for international growth.

When Mr. Ritter took the helm, SAS owned 40% of the Inter-Continental Hotels group. He led SAS out of the Inter-Continental ownership, a move that dramatically improved the company's financial picture. In 1994 he finalized the agreement with Radisson, spurring growth of SAS from 21 to 84 hotels in 25 countries. Today, Radisson SAS Hotels Worldwide is considered the fastest-growing first-class hotel group in all of Europe; the number of Radisson SAS hotels is expected to reach 100 by the end of 1997.
