COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

BOB RICHARDS

Bob Richards, called "America's Master of Motivation," is a record-holding Olympic champion as well as an author, educator and film producer. A member of three Olympic Teams, Mr. Richards is the only polevaulter in Olympic history to twice win a gold medal. He later covered the Olympic Games as a radio and television broadcaster.

Mr. Richards, who has been rated one of the top four motivational speakers in the U.S., holds "The Golden Gavel," Toastmasters International's highest award. A graduate of the University of Illinois, Mr. Richards was awarded an honorary Doctor of Business Administration Degree by Johnson & Wales College in 1979 and also delivered that year's commencement address. His messages of motivation and positive thinking are of such significance to graduating students that the College invited him to address its graduates once again.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

Richard L. Bready is President and Chief Operating and Financial Officer of Nortek, Inc., a diversified Fortune 500 company which produces and markets products for the commercial and residential building, aerospace, industrial and electrical industries. A Certified Public Accountant, Mr. Bready was an independent financial consultant and an audit manager with the accounting firm of Arthur Andersen & Co. prior to joining Nortek.

A member of the American Management Association and of the National Association of Manufacturers, he serves on the Business Advisory Council of the University of Rhode Island College of Business and as a member of the URI Foundation. He is also active in a number of other business, cultural and educational organizations. Mr. Bready is a graduate of St. Anselm College and holds a master's degree in accounting from Northeastern University.

RICHARD W. BROWN

Richard W. Brown is Vice President and Assistant to the Chairman of Villa Banfi, U.S.A., the country's largest wine importer. He is responsible for community and trade affairs for the company, which is headquartered in Old Brookville, New York. Prior to joining Villa Banfi, Mr. Brown held a number of executive posts in the hospitality industry, including executive vice president of the National Restaurant Association.

A member of the Hospitality Advisory Council at Johnson & Wales, Mr. Brown lectures frequently at leading hospitality schools. He is a graduate of Cornell University, a past president of its alumni association and a director and past president of the Cornell Society of Hotelmen.

EUGENE K. BURNS

Eugene K. Burns is President of EKB Associates, a company that manages several retail shops at the Historic Towne of Smithville, New Jersey. A 1950 graduate of Johnson & Wales, Mr. Burns is a staunch supporter of the College as well as of public education in his home state of New Jersey. He is a member of the Corporation of Johnson & Wales and of the College's Retail Advisory Council. Mr. Burns most recently served as Chairman of the school's successful 1985-86 Johnson & Wales Fund campaign.

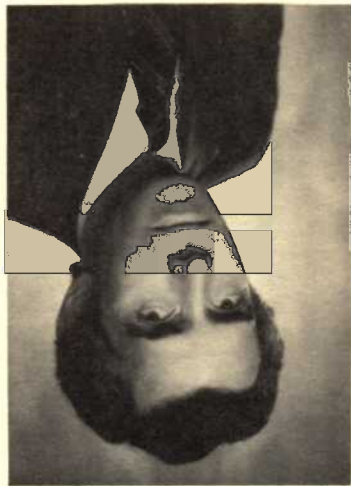

In New Jersey, Mr. Burns is a member of the Executive Board and the Board of Directors of the New Jersey School Board Association. He has served as President and a member of the Galloway Township Board of Education, Atlantic County, for five years and is also a member and past chairman of the Gallo-way Township Education Foundation and a Trustee of the New Jersey School Board Association Insurance Foundation.

J. HARRISON HOLMAN

J. Harrison Holman is President of The Holman Group, Inc., of Saco, Maine, a company that manufactures and markets a complete line of conveyor toasters, bakers and broilers. Prior to founding The Holman Group in 1979 with his son, Jay, Mr. Holman spent 33 years with Market Forge Co. of Everett, Massachusetts. A Senior Vice President when he retired in 1978, he was responsible for the profitable growth of their food service equipment division.

Mr. Holman is a past President of the National Association of Food Equipment Manufacturers and also formerly chaired the committee on Food Service Equipment of the National Research Council, National Academy of Science. He is a past member and Chairman of the Masconomet Regional Board in Topsfield, Massachusetts, where he lived for many years. Mr. Holman is a graduate of Boston University.

EDWARD A. FOX

Edward A. Fox has served since 1973 as the first President and Chief Executive Officer of the Student Loan Marketing Association (Sallie Mae), the major financial intermediary to the education credit market. Prior to joining Sallie Mae, Mr. Fox served as Chief Financial Officer and Administrator of the Federal Home Loan Bank System, Washington, D.C. and also held a variety of corporate finance and investment management positions with major corporations.

Mr. Fox is actively involved with a number of civic, cultural, educational and environmental organizations including the Metropolitan Washington United Way, the United Black Fund, the District of Columbia Chapter of the American Red Cross and The Washington Ballet. A graduate of Cornell University, he holds a Master of Business Administration degree from New York University.
