THE CANADIAN ROCKIES

The Climax of your Trip...

"A SEA OF MOUNTAINS" was the epithet used by a Canadian statesman descriptive of the Great Barrier of mountains which it was proposed to pierce by the Canadian Pacific Railway. "Fifty Switzerland's in One" was a later description made by Edward Whymper, the celebrated Alpine climber, who came to look over this terrain after conquering the Matterhorn.

Whether your approach to Banff and Lake Louise be from the East or from the Pacific Coast, these Alpine resorts in the Canadian Rockies come as a fitting climax to scenery which is a succession of thrills. The prairie Indians called the Canadian Rockies "The Glittering Mountains," from the white-capped peaks that caught the eye a hundred miles away. No sooner does your train enter the Gap than you are flanked by lofty cliffs pierced by passes through which you get glimpses of hanging glaciers on the peaks behind. Passing the spectacular Three Sisters, you enter the wild game preserve of Buffalo Park, and detrain for the Banff Springs Hotel, which towers like a Scottish baronial castle above the falls of the Bow River. Banff itself lies in an amphitheatre of mountains, which have drawn so many hundred thousand visitors that facilities are now provided for every kind of sport or relaxation including golf, swimming, riding, tennis, fishing, climbing, hiking, and the pleasure of dancing to lilting music. Through Banff's main street throbs a colorful life—visitors from all parts of the world—Indians in feather headdress, scarlet-coated troopers of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, trail riders and pack ponies.

Lake Louise is forty miles nearer the Great Divide. With a glacier at its front door, reflected in one of the loveliest of Alpine lakes, and with its rock gardens and borders of Iceland Poppies, the Chateau Lake Louise seems almost to have been dropped into fairyland. Here too are the amenities of a popular mountain resort, swimming pool, ponies for riding, canoeing, tennis courts, Swiss guides for the Alpine climber, trails for the hiker—and a dance orchestra. A motor trip remarkable for its Alpine beauty can now be made over the new Columbia Icefield Highway stretching north from Lake Louise towards the spectacular Columbia Icefield. The route through this picturesque mountain country is flanked all the way by mighty glaciers, and adds another charming trip to the impressive list of motor drives available from Lake Louise.

The approach from the Pacific Coast is by way of the Fraser Canyon and the deep gorges of Eagle Pass, Rogers Pass and the Kicking Horse Pass—nearly four hundred miles of superb mountain scenery. As an engineering feat, this section of the Canadian Pacific Railway is one of the wonders of the world. You have to see it to believe it. Ravines breaking through the northern wall of the Kicking Horse Pass provide access to two fascinating summer resorts, Emerald Lake and the Yoho Valley, a paradise of waterfalls. Just before one reaches the Great Divide is Lake Wapta with its Lodge, eight miles by pony trail from Lake O'Hara, one of the most exquisitely beautiful spots in this Alpine domain. Lake Louise is just about ten miles farther East as the crow flies. In a word the best of the Canadian Rockies is concentrated in an area of about sixty miles located adjacent to the line of the Canadian Pacific Railway.
