COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

THE HOSPITALITY COLLEGE

SCHOOL OF TECHNOLOGY

PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND

MAY 19, 2001

For the safety of everyone in attendance and to comply with local fire department regulations, guests are requested to remain in their seats during the program. Guests will not be allowed onto the arena floor or in the exhibition area where graduates enter and exit the arena. Ushers are stationed at the foot of each aisle should you need assistance.

After the ceremony, guests can join the graduates in either the front lobby or the front entrance area outside the Civic Center. Once the academic recessional has ended, graduates and guests may return to the arena to use the stage as a backdrop for photographs.

For your convenience, today's graduation exercise is being professionally videotaped by Grad-U-Vision Productions, P.O. Box 1029, Fairfield, IA 52556. Copies may be purchased by contacting a Grad-U-Vision representative at (515) 472-6892.

This year's commencement ceremonies are dedicated to the memory of John Hazen White Sr., whose tireless efforts and generous contributions in behalf of Johnson & Wales University will be remembered by all.

ACADEMIC RECESSIONAL

Honorary Degree Recipient

DON W. HUBBLE

Doctor of Business Administration

Students at Johnson & Wales University are quite familiar with Don Hubble's work. Many of them have his company to thank for the shirts on their backs. Mr. Hubble is the chairman, president and chief executive officer of Angelica Corporation, creators of the University's award-winning uniforms. Based in Cheshire, Connecticut, Angelica is the country's leading provider of textile rental and laundry services to the healthcare industry; the leading manufacturer and marketer of image and business career apparel; and the leading U.S. operator of specialty retail stores for healthcare professionals. Prior to joining Angelica, Mr. Hubble served as president and chief operating officer of National Service Industries, a diversified manufacturing and service company. He has also held positions with Eastman Kodak, The Upjohn Company and Reeces Brothers with responsibilities in general management, sales, marketing, manufacturing, finance, administration, management information systems and research and development.

Mr. Hubble earned a bachelor's degree in chemistry and a master of business administration in management, both from Western Michigan University. He has also completed the Senior Executive, Marketing Management and Financial Management programs at Stanford University and has been a participant in the Wharton/Spencer Stuart Board of Directors Program. His military experience includes service as a jump school instructor in the 101st Airborne Division and with the 32nd Infantry Division during the Berlin Crisis.

A member of the board of directors for Junior Achievement of the Mississippi Valley, Inc., Mr. Hubble is also a former chairman of the board of Junior Achievement of Georgia. He is also a trustee at Maryville University in St. Louis.

Honorary Degree Recipient

JOSE "PEPE" FANJUL

Doctor of Business Administration in Hospitality Management

Jose "Pepe" Fanjul is the vice chairman, president and chief operating officer of Florida Crystals Corp. and Flo-Sun, Inc., both longtime family-owned companies that date back more than 150 years to Cuba. Florida Crystals' story has intertwined with the sugar industry for five generations and has helped shape the business in three nations since then.

A descendent of the Gomez-Mena and Rionda families, both major producers of sugar in Cuba, Mr. Fanjul is responsible for the production and refining of sugar on some 170,000 acres in Palm Beach County, Florida. He is also vice chairman and presidente c.e. of Central Romana Corp. in La Romana, the largest privately held company in the Dominican Republic and one of the largest sugar producing units in the world.

His professional affiliations include director and president of the Florida Sugar Cane League and director of the Florida Molasses Exchange, Inc. In addition, he participates in the Florida Sugar Marketing and Terminal Association, The Sugar Association, Inc. of Washington, D.C., and the World Sugar Research Organization, Ltd., London. He is also a member of the U.S. Senate Agricultural Advisory Committee and the Advisory Committee of The Optima Fund.

Mr. Fanjul is involved with a number of civic and charitable organizations and efforts. He is the vice chairman of the National Finance Committee for the Republican Party and is on the Knights of Malta Board of Directors where he has served as the former area chairman for Florida. He serves on the boards of St. Mary's Hospitals, The Americas Society and The Spanish Institute, and is board chairman for the New Hope Charities, Inc.

He earned a bachelor of science degree in economics at Villanova University and a master of business administration at New York University.

Mr. Fanul and his wife Emilia have two children and homes in Florida, New York City and the Dominican Republic.

Honorary Degree Recipient

JEAN-JACQUES GAUER

Doctor of Business Administration in Hospitality Management

In the international world of the luxury hotel, Jean-Jacques Gauer is at the pinnacle of the trade.

As chairman of 'The Leading Hotels of the World, whose member properties represent 380 "grand palace" hotels in 75 countries, Mr. Gauer is at the head of an organization dating back to an initiative of 38 European hotels in 1928. With the recent formation of the Luxury Alliance, he is part of an association with Relais & Châteaux, pooling the promotional resources of global leaders among small countryside and large, luxurious hotels.

Mr. Gauer is a graduate of the International Hotel School in Lausanne, Switzerland and learned the finer points of hotel management in practical training at the Hotel de La Paix in Geneva, the Hotel Dolder in Zurich, Switzerland, and the Hotel Driskill in Austin, Texas.

In 1979, he was named general manager of the J. Gauer Hotel Group, overseeing operations of six hotels in Switzerland, three hotels in Corfu Greece, a hotel in Mallorca, Spain and another in Jerusalem.

Today, Mr. Gauer is general manager of the Lausanne Palace and Spa and owns the L'Auberge du Raison, Cully in Lausanne, and the GMU AG, a restaurant group in Bern, Switzerland. In addition to serving on the boards of the Seiler Hotels in Zermatt, Switzerland and the Crown Plaza at Geneva Airport in Switzerland, he is currently vice chairman and shareholder of the Richmond Heritage SA with five Leading Hotels of the World member hotels in Switzerland, and Le Royal Savoy in Lausanne.

He lives in Bern with his wife and two children.

Honorary Degree Recipient

SENATOR JACK REED

Doctor of Laws

Jack Reed's election to the U.S. Senate in 1996 is his most recent entry in a long and dedicated history of public service to both the citizens of Rhode Island and the nation.

A graduate of West Point with a bachelor of science degree, he earned a master's degree in public policy from Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government. Sen. Reed served as an Army Ranger in the 82nd Airborne Division, rising through the ranks to captain. He left the military and returned to Harvard to pursue a law degree.

After a career in law, he was elected to the State Senate in 1984 and served three terms. In 1990 he won the vote to enter politics at the national level as a Democrat in the 102nd Congress of the United States.

During his service in the U.S. House of Representatives, he distinguished himself as "a relentless advocate for his home state" and a leader on issues involving education and health care. He succeeded Sen. Claiborne Pell in 1996.

As the state's 47th representative to the Senate, The Honorable Mr. Reed has served as a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, the Senate Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs Committee and the Senate Health, Education, Labor and Pensions Committee. Democratic leader Sen. Tom Daschle (D-S.D.) appointed Sen. Reed eastern regional chair of the Democratic Policy Committee, and he was appointed deputy minority whip by Minority Whip Harry Reid (D-Nev.). Sen. Reed is also senior Democratic member of the Joint Economic Committee.

Sen. Reed has been the recipient of many awards including the National PTA President's Recognition for Outstanding Child Advocacy in 2000 and the Shirley Chisholm Award for the New England Education Opportunity Association.

Symbolism of Commencement

Academic Dress

The tradition of wearing distinctive dress for academic reasons dates back to the Middle Ages. Today, academic costumes are worn in the United States by people participating in most graduation ceremonies. The academic dress at Johnson & Wales meets the standards set by the Intercollegiate Bureau of Academic Costume. All students wear the standard black gown and square "Oxford cap." Students graduating with at least a 3.40 cumulative grade point average (GPA) wear gold tassels to designate their honors status.

Bachelor's degree recipients also wear an academic hood representing their higher level of education. The hood worn at Johnson & Wales University is black with blue, white and golden-yellow trim to signify the school colors.

The faculty and platform party wear regalia representative of the degrees they possess. The president and other university officials wear caps and gowns designed exclusively for Johnson & Wales University.

University Seal and Logo

The university seal represents Johnson & Wales' roots. The year at the top of the shield, 1914, is the year that the University was founded by Gertrude I. Johnson and Mary T. Wales. The Dragon of St. George on the upper portion of the shield is taken from the Wales' family crest, while the lower portion of the shield is part of the Johnson family crest.

America's Career University®

The step and flame logotype was originally designed in 1990 and was refined in 1998. It symbolizes the step-by-step discipline of learning combined with the flame of passion that drives us to succeed. The identifier "America's Career University®" has been added to indicate our unique position in higher education.
