LW-LD
SIMMONS COLLEGE, the first women's college in America to combine liberal education with professional preparation, was incorporated in 1899 under the will of John Simmons, wealthy Boston merchant of the last century.

Located on the picturesque Fenway, Simmons offers programs in the eight schools of Business, English, Home Economics, Library Science, Nursing, Preprofessional Studies, Retailing, Science, and the graduate School of Social Work to more than 1500 students.

The College has 11,000 alumnae, with many Simmons Clubs throughout the country. Simmons' Student Government has been acknowledged one of the finest student administrative bodies. The only honor society is "Academy" which is maintained for students of exceptional scholastic achievement.

Facing its 50th Anniversary, Simmons today is in the midst of an appeal for $3,500,000 for the construction of a library, science center, social and health unit, and the endowment of faculty salaries.

Bancroft Beasley, LL.D., is its second President.

SIMMONS COLLEGE has been served by the Boston and Albany Route of the New York Central System since the establishment of the college in 1899.

This was about the time when the Boston and Albany Railroad was leased to and became an integral part of the New York Central System. The historic predecessor railroads of the Boston and Albany were the Boston and Worcester, The Western Railroad of Massachusetts and the Albany and West Stockbridge. Their combination gave New England a single through railroad to the West.

SIMMONS ALMA MATER

Hail, Alma Mater! We pledge our love to thee.
Bring thee our hearts and hands in full loyalty.
Praising thy counsel and trusting thy truth
Lift we our song to thee: Oh guide thou our youth!

Lift we our song to thee: Oh bless now our youth!
Make us, thy children, generous and just,
Send us to labor when leave thee we must,
Ready for service and worthy of trust.

Hail, Alma Mater! Thy praises we sing.
One in allegiance our tributes we bring.
Fair shall thy name be, trusted to our care,
For thy dear sake our lives shall be more fair,
For thy dear sake our lives shall be more fair.
Make us, thy children, strong and pure and just,
Send us to labor when leave thee we must,
Ready for service and worthy of trust.

Today New York Central's Great Steel Fleet includes such famous limiteds as The New England States and The Paul Revere, deluxe trains with all new equipment between Boston and Chicago; The Southwestern Limited, between Boston, Cincinnati and St. Louis and The New England Wolverine between Boston, Detroit and Chicago.

The Boston and Albany freight service is an arm of New England's domestic commerce and through splendid port facilities in Boston Harbor an important factor in international trade.
