INDIAN CLIFFS RANCH

HORSEMAN'S CLUB

HEADQUARTERS

The famous CATTLEMAN'S STEAKHOUSE is the largest in the Southwest seating more than 400 people and located in the midst of a 5,000-acre desert ranch. Cattleman's serves an average of 15 tons of aged beef each month and is noted for the 2-lb. "Cowboy" T-bone steak and friendly family atmosphere.

A Ranch collection of antique horse-drawn vehicles sit on display at the VIP stalls, special stalls leased to those who value their horses highly. The cactus garden nearby shows off a variety of desert vegetation.
