JOHNSON & WALES UNIVERSITY

LETTER FROM DEAN MALIK

Congratulations on the publication of the third student year book, Crossroads. This year's theme represents three T's, Transform; Translate and Transition. Each T represents a different facet of your journey from freshman to a successful graduate.

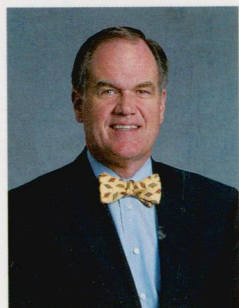

College is a transformational experience; your academic and student life experiences have helped you to develop and grow into mature individuals. Translation of information to action, ideas into practical solutions, skills and knowledge into sound decisions are the result of your tenure at Johnson & Wales University. We hope that you will continue your transition by embarking on lifelong quest for learning and personal growth.

We hope that as you experience successes in your lives you will share them with us; nothing would make us more proud than to learn that we played a role in making you contributing members of society.

Many years from now when you pick up this book and travel down memory lane, we hope that it reminds you of a special time in your life when you stood at the crossroads of your life and took the first steps to your success.

Regards,

Leon Malik

LETTER FROM PRESIDENT GALLAGHER

Office of the President

Arthur J. Gallagher
President

Dear Students:

Thank you for making the 2007-2008 academic year at Johnson & Wales University our most successful and memorable yet. Not only was the year filled with many accomplishments, but we concluded it with the promise of wonderful new beginnings. Both graduates and returning students are closer than ever to achieving their own personal dreams.

The Charlotte Campus opened its doors only four years ago to approximately 1,000 students. During this past school year, there were nearly 2,600 students from 39 states and 20 foreign countries enrolled. The makeup of our student body is a positive reflection of the university's commitment to cultural diversity.

Because we have a diverse campus with professional students, faculty, and staff, you are well equipped to share the culture and knowledge gained through your experience at Johnson & Wales. You have the opportunity to build strong and vibrant communities, improve our quality of life, and make a positive difference where people live and work in this region and abroad. I congratulate you on your present and future accomplishments.

For those students who have graduated, I hope you will stay in touch with us through the university's Alumni Association at <http://alumni.jwu.edu>. You are welcome to visit us in Charlotte at any time. For returning students, I look forward to seeing you in the fall and sharing another great year together.

Finally, a special acknowledgment to the Inaugural Class of 2008—your enduring legacy will always be remembered and cherished at the Charlotte Campus. Thank you all for being a part of the Johnson & Wales family and for creating wonderful memories together.

Regards,

Arthur J. Gallagher
