

A la Carte

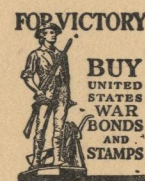

On the north wall of the main lobby of the Hotel Roosevelt, New York, may be seen the bronze plaque by Laura Gardin Fraser, reproducing on a large scale N. J. Darling's famous newspaper cartoon "The Long Long Trail," published at the time of Colonel Roosevelt's death.

Because of the present rationing system to which RESTAURANTS as well as homes are subject, purchases of certain foods will necessarily be curtailed.

To cooperate with our Government in the conservation of these rationed foods we have deemed it expedient to change our menus from table d'hote to a la carte. This will not affect pleasurable dining in Roosevelt restaurants but it will eliminate waste.
