STATE STREET

Santa Barbara, California

(a few years ago...)

OUR STORY

State & A Bar & Grill first opened its doors in February of 1983. It has evolved into a favorite locals meeting place, just as its predecessor, Felch and Sons, was in the 1920s. Felch and Sons sold everything from newspapers and magazines out front, to fishing bait, cigars, root beer, and soda pop inside the shop.

State & A has carried on the tradition of Felch and Sons by using the original stones on our back patio at the same corner of State & Anapamu Streets. We also feature an old photograph on the front cover of our menu showing the corner on the morning of July 4, 1926.

At State & A we use the finest ingredients to prepare our food, from the authentic cheeses on our famous nachos to the freshest seafood from purveyors in the Santa Barbara Harbor. Our soups, sauces, and desserts are all homemade. We even bake our own roast beef and turkey in the early morning so its ready for you at lunch.

We trust you will find the restaurant management and staff the friendliest employees in Santa Barbara, and hope that whether you're a first-time visitor or a long-time resident you will help us carry on the tradition at the corner of State & Anapamu.
