Highland's Garden Café is known for its creative contemporary cuisine complimented by an extensive wine list. The restaurant is a favorite gathering place for those seeking seasonally inspired selections prepared using the freshest ingredients.

Housed in two thoughtfully renovated Victorian homes, the Café is surrounded by gardens abundantly planted with evergreens, perennials and flowering shrubs. The Café is known for its sophisticated, yet relaxed atmosphere that showcases vintage watercolor paintings, fireplaces, and hardwood floors. This award-winning restaurant is located in Denver's historic Highland's neighborhood, just minutes from downtown with easy access off I-25 and I-70.

The restaurant also offers several semi-private dining rooms for guests who wish to gather with friends or family to celebrate holidays, rehearsal dinners, birthdays, or for hosting business lunches, dinner meetings, or seminars. Contact Carol Toth to arrange your event.
