

About this building . . .

The first brick building 100F Hall, 1886 was the center of early Ripon activity. It was first occupied by pioneer merchants Perry Yaple & E. C. Dickenson. The ground floor housed their general merchandise business (later McKee & Reynolds), and the second floor contained facilities important to the town. In addition to meetings of the Odd Fellows Lodge, Church Services, Sunday School, dances and first high school classes were also held here.

Still retaining much of its original detailing on the second floor, the structure was occupied by a drapery shop in recent years. The ground floor held a wooden venetian blind business.

New life was given the venerable structure in 1983 when new owners Robert and Ann Ide renovated both floors for office suites.

Sweet Basil's Restaurant opened for business on April 26th 1986. Owners Bob and Gabriele Brittain maintained all the original features of the ground floor - including the brick walls, copper ceiling & pull-rope elevator.
