

Spring 2016

Race Relations, Activism, and Compassion on Campus

Beth O'Day

Johnson & Wales University - Providence, boday@jwu.edu

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarsarchive.jwu.edu/studentaffairs>

Part of the Higher Education Commons

Repository Citation

O'Day, Beth, "Race Relations, Activism, and Compassion on Campus" (2016). Department of Student Affairs. 1.
<https://scholarsarchive.jwu.edu/studentaffairs/1>

This Poster is brought to you for free and open access by the University Office at ScholarsArchive@JWU. It has been accepted for inclusion in Department of Student Affairs by an authorized administrator of ScholarsArchive@JWU. For more information, please contact jcastel@jwu.edu.

April 21, 2016 NASPA Rhode Island Drive In Workshop

Race Relations, Activism and Compassion on Campus

Join us as we explore today's race climate, student activism, and how to care for ourselves and others.

10:00AM WELCOME

Dr. John King, Vice President of Student Affairs, Roger Williams University

10:15AM KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Constanza (Connie) Cabello, Director, Intercultural Affairs-Stonehill College

11:00AM BREAKOUT SESSIONS

Compassion Fatigue presented by Dr. Joe Barresi
Associate Dean of Health and Wellness, Johnson & Wales University

Student Activism: Sharing Our Stories facilitated by Dr. Anthony Rodriguez
Assistant Professor, Providence College

Panelists:

Virgina Albert – Roger Williams University

Sheldon Davis – Bentley University

Charde Hunt-Jeanty – Bryant University

Jennifer Pham – Stonehill College

Justina Ramlakhan – Wheaton College

12:00PM LUNCHTIME ROUND TABLE DISCUSSIONS

Why Aren't There More People of Color in Leadership Positions?
Facilitated by Dr. Judy Kawamoto, Associate Dean of Student Life, Bryant University

Best Practices on College Campuses
Facilitated by Danny DiCamillo, Assistant Director of Residential Life
Roger Williams University

Taking the Burden Off Students of Color
Facilitated by Felina Kelly, Residence Director, Bentley University
Roatha Kong, Program Coordinator of Student Programs & Engagement, Bentley University

Can Activism be Polite: Knowing Your Campus Culture
Facilitated by Beth O'Day, Associate Director of New Student Orientation
Johnson & Wales University

1:00PM WRAP UP & CLOSING REMARKS

#NASPARIDRIVEIN16

KEYNOTE SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Constanza A. Cabello

Constanza (Connie) serves the Stonehill College community as their Director of Intercultural Affairs, providing senior-level leadership and decision making focused on diversity, equity, and inclusion. Her passions include diversity education, mentoring underrepresented students and developing spaces for dialogue and discourse. She partners with several campus divisions to advocate for the needs of diverse faculty, staff and students.

She enjoys presenting on the regional and national level as a higher education professional and trainer. Her strong training background allows her to engage with students, faculty, and staff on different campuses. She is actively involved with NASPA serving as the Latino/a Knowledge Community Sponsorship & Fundraising Chair and the Region I Knowledge Community Co-Coordinator. This summer she will serve as a faculty member for the NUFP Dungy Leadership Institute at The Ohio State University. Additionally, she is an alum of the Social Justice Training Institute and chaired the Host Committee for the Student Social Justice Training Institute in 2013.

Connie is a doctoral student in the Doctor of Education in Organizational Leadership Studies program at Northeastern University. She received a Master of Science in Counseling: Student Development in Higher Education from Central Connecticut State University and a Bachelor of Science in Social Policy and Planning from the University of Connecticut.

PLEASE STOP BY OUR RESOURCE TABLES

#NASPARIDRIVEIN16

Sponsored by: Asian-Pacific Islanders Knowledge Community, Latino/Latina Knowledge Community, Multiracial Knowledge Community, and the Rhode Island State Board