THE BEAUTIFUL GULF COAST

This glamorous resort and vacation region of charm and entrancing loveliness, extending over four hundred miles along the Gulf of Mexico from New Orleans through Mississippi and Alabama to Apalachicola in Northwestern Florida, is increasingly popular.

It has a distinctive individuality and charm which is unique. The climate is superbly healthful, with the tang of the sea and the spice of the pine to give that zest which makes mere existence here a joy. The sun shines about 320 days in the year and there is no rainy season. Charming cities and scores of alluring year-round resorts await the visitor. Nearly every recreation under the sun is at its best along the Gulf Coast; it is rich in historic interest. Come here over the Louisville & Nashville Railroad and enjoy one of the most delightful and interesting vacations you’ve ever had. It is ideal for either rest or recreation. There are splendid hotels along the coast with accommodations to suit any taste.

An illustrated folder descriptive of the Gulf Coast may be had by addressing General Passenger Agent, L. & N. R.R., Louisville, Ky.

THE HERMITAGE

Located near Nashville, Tennessee, this was the home of former President Andrew Jackson. This beautiful Colonial mansion has been completely restored and is furnished with articles used by General Jackson and his family. On the premises is the coach in which Jackson traveled to and from Washington while President.
