Luncheon

American Export Lines
S. S. Independence

CAPT. HUGH L. SWITZER, Commander
Luncheon

Appetizers
- Macedoine of Fruit
- Tomato Juice
- Tunafish in Oil
- Italian Salami
- Egg Salad with Mayonnaise
- Home-Made Headcheese
- Iced Garden Red Radishes and Spring Onions

Soups
- Minestrone Genovese
- Consomme en Tasse
- Cold: Jellied Gumbo Consomme

Fish
- Broiled Striped Bass, Maitre d'Hotel

Eggs
- Scrambled with Virginia Ham
- Mushroom Omelette

Entrees
- Ziti a la Napolitaine
- Boiled Beef, Horseradish Sauce
- Breaded Calf's Brains a la Zingara
- Beef Saute, Stroganoff, Sour Cream, Wild Rice

Special (Cold)
- Pineapple Ring with Cottage Cheese and Sour Cream

From the Grill
- Broiled Chicken a l'Amerciane, Sauce Diable

Vegetables
- Buttered Beets
- Steamed Rice
- Green Peas
- Mashed
- Boulangerie

Potatoes
- Assorted Cold Meats
- Roast Pork
- Roast Veal
- York Ham
- Smoked Turkey
- Corned Beef, Dill Pickle
- Poached Red Snapper with Sliced Tomato

Salads
- Cucumber and Tomato
- Hungarian
- Thousand Island
- Cheese
- Mixed Green
- French

Dressings
- Peach Pie
- Cabinet Pudding
- Fruit Cake
- Pound Cake
- Fruit Jello
- Coffee or Vanilla Ice Cream
- Lemon Sherbet
- Compote of Figs and Plums

Cheese
- Tray of Assorted Cheese
- Crackers
- Pumpernickel

Beverages
- Coffee
- Tea
- Milk
- Buttermilk

---

S.S. Independence

Sunday, November 19, 1961
The Esplanade at Tel Aviv is one of the beauty spots of this thriving modern city. The S.S. Atlantic of American Export Lines has a regular service to Haifa, only 60 miles away. The twin Sunliners, Independence and Constitution of American Export Lines, usually call at Haifa during the annual springtime cruise.