AND ON THE SEVENTH DAY

Iggy invites you to enjoy a sit-down Sunday Brunch from from 10 a.m. to noon.

As a boy Iggy collected sports cards, challenged other boys to a game of "Horse," and prized his dirty (and smelly) baseball glove. Much to his mother's consternation, his favorite song was, "99 Bottles of Beer on the Wall."

So it's not surprising that he grew up to open a sports grill -- one that combines Utah's widest selection of beers, ales and signature microbrews with some of the best damned food around.

Whether you gather at Iggy's to watch a game with friend, have an effective business lunch, enjoy a dinner with the family or just relax after a day of labor, Iggy wants you to feel at home in his "house." If there's anything we can improve upon, let us know. Iggy likes feedback (just don't criticize Iggy's favorite -- the Utah Jazz.)

With your enjoyment, please remember that adults drink responsibly. As the advertisement urges, know when to say when. And, we recommend the use of designated drivers. We hope you enjoy. After all, everybody needs a little Iggy in their life.

Dress code enforced at Iggy's Sports Grill during all operating hours Iggy's reserves the right to refuse service to anyone. Iggy's regrets that we are not responsible for lost or stolen items.
