MINSTRELS GRILLE

WELCOME TO MINSTRELS GRILLE

A long time ago, before the arrival of CDs and videos, Minstrels were a traveling group of entertainers. They would journey throughout the land with musicians, acrobats, jugglers, storytellers, and their followers, setting up camp and putting on shows—sort of like the Grateful Dead used to do. As they traveled, they would sample different cuisines and cultures. The bass player liked beef, the juggler liked lots of "picky" items, the lead mandolin liked vegetarian fare. Our Minstrels invite you to taste and enjoy their favorites.
