The Last Act Company opened its doors Saturday, the 14th of July, 1990 with a novel idea in mind: why not cater to the "after-theater" crowd, the Second City stars, the neighborhood. Let's give everyone who walks in a great meal, superb service, the best cocktails, and let them keep some of the money they came in with. Not a bad idea.

The Restaurant & Bar is family-owned and operated. Richard Loon, the father, handles the finances. The restaurant is co-managed by two of his sons, Chris and Thomas. Chris handles the bar (you name it, he'll make it), Tom takes care of the food (American and Continental cuisine). All three share the firm belief that they should be there at all times to meet with and greet all patrons and new-found friends, which further illustrates their conviction that friendly ambiance is necessary for success in the "people" business.

It is not by accident that The Last Act is swiftly becoming the "in spot." Reasonable prices, great food and drink, friendly, unbeatable service. The dress code is casual, so drop in anytime... and often!

The next time you're in the neighborhood, make THE LAST ACT a must on your theatre night out or anytime you're in the mood for fun!

Always ready to serve you.
