Welcome to Dining Excellence
Anthony's FINE RESTAURANTS

Anthony's FINE RESTAURANTS

ANTHONY ATHANAS, PRESIDENT

Each of these Anthony's Fine Restaurants has its own individuality, decor and atmosphere. Each adds to the group's heritage of distinguished social or business dining — with special facilities for functions of all occasions that become fondly treasured memories.

ANTHONY'S PIER 4
in Boston
Overlooks historic Boston Harbor where the celebrated Boston Tea Party exploded in 1773. Built on the site of a converted pier that juts right into the action-packed harbor where boats to and from world-known landmarks parade by.

ANTHONY'S HAWTHORNE
in Lynn
This family restaurant in downtown Lynn was the beginning of the family of Anthony's Fine Restaurants. It was founded by Anthony Athanas — the first restaurateur in New England to receive a National Restaurant Association's directors' "Restaurant of the Year Award."

GENERAL GLOVER HOUSE
on the Marblehead-Salem line
Replete with early American historical significance and carefully preserved to retain the wonderful charm and flavor of past generations. General Glover was the renowned leader of the Marblehead Marines who heroically aided General Washington's army turn the war for the patriots.

HAWTHORNE BY THE SEA
in Swampscott
Well-known North Shore landmark — built on the top of an Indian's hill, the restaurant commands a majestic, unobstructed view of a wide expanse of the ocean.

ANTHONY'S CUMMAQUIUD INN
in Yarmouth Port (Cape Cod)
This beautiful restaurant and inn is situated in the lovely Cummaquid land of the Pilgrims' friend and benefactor, Indian Sachem Samoset. It is built on an elevation — the magnificent view from the dining room presents an especially outstanding Cape scene.

We have a fine selection of cigars at our cashier desk.
