The most recommended restaurant in Israel according to “Gourmet” magazine, 1998.

“Many consider Arcadia to be the city’s all-round top-class dining establishment.”

The New York Times, 1999

Located in a typical 19th-century Jerusalem stone building in the heart of the city. A small, quiet and intimate restaurant with a beautiful garden. Arcadia was chosen as one of the four best restaurants in Israel. Gourmet kitchen, specializing in creative local dishes. Wide use of fresh, local herbs. Fish from the Mediterranean Sea. Finest lamb dishes and goat’s cheeses from the Judean Hills.

Well-stocked wine cellar with the best Israeli wines.

Open: Mon.-Fri. 12.30pm-3pm, 7pm-10.30pm. Sat. 1pm-3pm, 7pm-10.30pm, Sun. closed.
